Maa Chandraghanta is the 3rd NavaDurga aspect of the Divine Mother. According to Shiva Maha Purana, Chandraghanta is the “Shakti”, of Lord Shiva in the form of Chandrashekhara. Chandraghanta has ten hands where two hands hold a Trishula (trident), Gada (mace), bow-arrow, khadak (sword), Kamala(lotus), Ghanta(bell) and kamandal (waterpot), while one of her hands remains in blessing posture or abhayamudra(Fear dispelling). While the primary cause of this form was the destruction demons, she is otherwise the very embodiment of serenity.
