Maa Kaalratri is traditionally worshipped during the seventh day of Navaratri pooja (Hindu prayer ritual). She is considered the fiercest form of the Divine Mother Goddess, her appearance itself invoking fear. This form of Goddess is believed to be the destroyer of all demon entities, ghosts, evil spirits and negative energies, who flee upon knowing of her arrival. The Saudhikagama, an ancient Tantric text describes Goddess Kalaratri as being the force that rules the night portion of every 24 hours. She is associated with the Sahasraara or crown chakra thereby giving the invoker, siddhis and niddhis (particularly, knowledge, power and wealth).
